Owners make editorial change

Effective June 2, Phil and Rosemary Heth, co-owners of the Carbondale NEWS, will assume the managing editor's position currently held by David Baum, who was hired in January of 1981 to fill that position.

The decision to assume Baum's managing editor's duties, in addition to those of the publisher, was made according to Heth, for "economic reasons only."

Mr. Heth has been publisher of the NEWS since 1979 when he purchased the weekly newspaper from his father, Mr. Tom Heth. Previously, Heth was involved in sales and served as a public affairs officer in the U.S. Navy.

Mrs. Heth has been employed by the NEWS as office manager since last September, and has been social editor for two years. She was editor of her college newspaper at East Stroudsburg State College.
